

Northern Illinois Technology Triangle

By the end of the year, most of the “triangle” of fiber-optic lines along northern Illinois interstates will be complete, providing high-speed data access for businesses and communities. Being finished now is the strand along Interstate 39 from Rockford to Rochelle. The connection at I-39 and I-90 in Rockford will be completed next year.

— FIBER-OPTIC ROUTE

